

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING HERE

Miss Mary R. Sammons Is Bride of James A. Beirne.

One of the prettiest church weddings in Towanda in some time occurred at 9 o'clock Thursday morning when James A. Beirne of Chicago, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael F. Beirne of Lawrence, Mass., and Miss Mary R. Sammons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sammons of Ward Avenue, Towanda, were married. The nuptial mass was said by the Very Rev. J. J. McGuckin, pastor of the SS. Peter and Paul parish.

Robert M. Beirne, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man and the bridesmaid was Miss Genevieve Sammons, a sister of the bride. Both the bride and her sister were beautifully attired, the former being gowned in light blue georgette and carrying a shower bouquet of roses, while the latter wore pink georgette and had a corsage bouquet of roses. Both had picture hats to match.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at Mrs. Thomas Coleman's home. Guests were present from New York and Lawrence, Mass.

Mrs. Beirne is a graduate of St. Agnes High School and St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira, N. Y. Since then she has been supervisor of Ideal Hospital, Endicott, N. Y.
